Early Elementary
Folk Art to Fine Art

Folk Art

Folk art has many definitions, but here are a few ways to start thinking about folk art:

- ✧ Folk art is made by ordinary people, often with no formal training, like you and me.
- ✧ Folk art was decorative but it typically had a use, like a blanket, or a dish.
- ✧ Many artists were anonymous, especially from hundreds of years ago. To be anonymous means we don't know the person's name.

Fine Art

Fine artists, or academic artists, have some of the following characteristics:

- ✧ They are formally trained. The artist went to school to learn how to make the art. Like your art class, but a lot harder.
- ✧ Fine art is made to purely be beautiful. There is no use for it.
- ✧ You know who created each piece of art. We know his or her name!

*And remember... Art is everywhere and can be anything!
Here are some types of art you will see in the houses.*

Quilt - a warm bed covering made of pieces of fabric, typically applied in a decorative design.

Pottery - pots, dishes, bowls, and other pieces made of clay and then baked.
